

Financial Literacy Seminars: Successful completion of the free cycle of women's empowerment training seminars for women employees of Fourlis group

A 6-month cycle of financial empowerment seminars in collaboration with the organization WHEN.

A successful 6-month cycle of financial empowerment seminars, titled “Financial Literacy Seminars”, has been completed for 47 women employees of Fourlis group, in collaboration with the organization WHEN.

Through monthly interactive sessions, participants became familiar with the fundamentals of financial literacy, strengthened their confidence in managing personal finances, and developed the skills needed to make better and more informed financial decisions.

During the program, participants engaged with practical tools and targeted activities, learned sustainable saving techniques and best practices for organizing their finances, and enhanced their ability to plan for their financial future with a long-term perspective.

The seminars were delivered by experienced WHEN trainers and are part of Fourlis group broader Sustainable Development and Corporate Social Responsibility initiatives, with a special focus on women's empowerment.
