

Fourlis group visit to the Sea Turtle Rescue Center “ARCHELON”

The Sustainable Development and Corporate Social Responsibility Department of Fourlis group successfully organized a complimentary guided visit for employees and their families to the Sea Turtle Rescue Center “ARCHELON” at the 3rd Marina of Glyfada, on Sunday, November 2nd.

Participants had the opportunity to tour the rehabilitation facilities, learn about the evolution and biology of sea turtles, the threats they face, and the crucial rescue and rehabilitation work carried out by the ARCHELON organization. They were also informed about the life cycle of sea turtles and the protective actions undertaken on nesting beaches.

Employees and their children enjoyed a meaningful and educational experience, fostering environmental awareness and a deeper connection with nature and wildlife protection.

Fourlis group remains committed to initiatives that promote sustainability and contribute to the preservation of biodiversity.
