

Vassilis Furlis recognized among the 100 Most Influential Greeks for 2025

Vassilis Furlis, Chairman of Furlis Group, is listed among the 100 Most Influential Greeks for 2025 in the Mononews100 list by mononews.

This distinction reflects his long-standing contribution to shaping the strategic direction of Furlis Group, as well as his role in the continuous evolution of organized retail across the broader Southeast European region.

With a professional journey spanning more than four decades within the Group, Vassilis Furlis has closely linked his leadership path with the development of a diversified retail presence, the strategic transformation of business activities, and the expansion of the Group's geographic footprint.

This recognition comes at a time when the Group is implementing significant strategic initiatives, further strengthening its position in its sectors of activity and laying the foundations for its next phase of growth.

Furlis Group remains committed to creating long-term value, investing in sustainable development, modern corporate governance, and the ongoing evolution of its business model.